Jessica Zalusky to participate in fundraising event in Colorado

Jessica Zalusky, a well-respected, national-level female motorcycle roadracer, has made plans to attend the Racing 2 Save Lives (R2SL) event in Colorado.

For those who are not acquainted with Jessica, she is a fourth year pro motorcycle roadracer, who races in the AMA Superbike Championship Series. Jessica races along side the men and was the only female to race a majority of the AMA Roadracing Circuit for the last 3 years. After many great finishes in 2002, Jessica finished 9th in the overall standing for the Pro Thunder class and continues on to race in both Supersport and Superstock.

For the second year running, R2SL riders/racers will have the opportunity to ride endurance style, clocking laps and using donations and pledges to pave their way at the only AMA sanctioned venue in Colorado...Pikes Peak International Raceway (PPIR).

The event will run from 9am – 6pm from May 11th to May 13th, allowing riders/racers from across the country to come and contribute towards a great cause, while riding an AMA roadracing venue. Thereafter on May 14th-May 15th, the MRA (Motorcycle Roadracing Association) will allow racers to log their laps raced towards our total goal while competing in sprint class races.

Racing 2 Save Lives is a 501c3 organization that raises money to benefit 5 Children's Charities – The Children's Hospital, Missing Children Task Force, Family Pathways of Colorado, Make a Wish Foundation of Colorado and Here's Life Inner City – Denver. R2SL was founded by Colorado roadracers and enthusiasts who desired to "give-back" to the community in a meaningful way.
